

A journey of a globally mobile family with ## international adoptée children

Anna Svedberg (annatck@hotmail.com)

Photo credit 40500249 / World Map © Cealbiero | Dreamstime.com

India
My family frequently vacationed in my birth country until the age of five with tastes of local food and outdoor activities in the heat.

Middle East
Pre-school with sandy playgrounds and local community get together.

Sweden
Short sojourn in the idyllic countryside with school trips in nature to learn about flora and fauna.

Hong Kong
Elementary school with historical and cultural field trips. Language classes and community celebrations of local festivals.

Middle East
High school with a caring Scandinavian community that celebrated local and passport festivals together.

3 Tips to help your family thrive overseas

1. Through cooking food and sparking memories

2. By celebrating traditions + festivals

3. By having a community overseas

Enabling your child's development

Strengthen your child's sense of identity

By enriching your child's awareness of their birth, passport + local cultures

Enhance your network, your family's constant tribe